Serene Lusano

Like her Beastie Boy counterpart, the late MCA, Serene is undeniably cool and raises hell on stage. Her passion and talent give rise to her rough-edged deep vocals while she swaggers in and out rhymes, effortlessly teetering between unhinged vocal aggression and innate slacker vibe. She's got energy, attitude and vocal prowess.

To quote Adam Yauch, "Everybody has a responsibility for what they put out into the world," and Serene is no exception. Outside of being a Sheastie Boy, Serene is a graphic designer, comic book artist and activist. Fighting the good fight as well as for your right to PARTY!
